Mastech Digital has been a preferred staffing partner for several key technology programs at Accenture.

Communications, Media, & Technology

AT&T

Supported OPUS – AT&T's POS application used in all AT&T corporate and retail stores across the country. This is a web-based application, consumed on many interfaces such as desktops, mobile phones, and tablets. It supports all lines of AT&T such as Mobile, Satellite TV, Internet, and Landline.

Comcast

Supported new Salesforce implementation at Comcast - a complex implementation effort across various business units of Comcast, with thousands of users.

Financial Services

Bank of America

Supported a wide range of technologies, ranging from legacy technologies like mainframes, to more recent, budding technologies like Hadoop, cloud, and mobile applications.

Capital One

Supported the implementation and running of the Robotics Automation Project, where Capital One moved towards virtualizing the user experience using robots, cutting down human effort.

Health & Public Services

Ascension Health

Supported the implementation of PeopleSoft HRMS and SCM.

Anthem

Supported the testing of mobile applications on iOS and Android devices in the Health Insurance domain, using Perfecto Mobile for handheld devices.

State of California

Supported "CalHEERS", which provides Californians with easy access to the health coverage opportunities available under the Affordable Care Act (known as "ObamaCare").

State of Georgia

Supported a web-based case management application for the Georgia Department of Human Resources and the Division of Family and Children Services. The application was developed to help the agency and its caseworkers enhance the service delivery to families and children throughout the state.

State of Massachusetts

Supported a web-based case management application (CommettsHD) for the Child Services Division of the Department of Revenue. This application is used by state employees, custodial parents, and public agencies. It deals mainly with payment transactions for dependents, by non-custodial parents.

Products

Best Buy

Supported the implementation of crucial ERP systems to help expand upon business requirements with ease.

Kohl's

Supported the company with the provision of business analysts and project managers.

Resources

The Dow Chemical Company

Supported the creation and implementation of the latest user interfaces, designed and developed using SAP Fiori, adding value to the expanding business regime.

Motiva Direct

Supported the development of upstream applications for Motiva Direct using Java J2EE.
